REGULATIONS MADE BY THE JOINT COMMITTEE ESTABLISHED UNDER THE NATIONAL INSURANCE ACT, 1911 (1 & 2 GEO. V., c. 55), AND THE SCOTTISH INSURANCE COMMISSIONERS ESTABLISHED UNDER THE SAID ACT, ACTING JOINTLY, AS TO THE PAYMENT AND COLLECTION OF CONTRIBUTIONS IN RESPECT OF PERSONS IN THE NAVAL SERVICE OF THE CROWN, DATED 18TH MARCH 1913.

The Joint Committee of the several bodies of Commissioners appointed for the purposes of Part I. of the National Insurance Act, 1911, acting jointly with the Scottish Insurance Commissioners established under that Act, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the National Insurance Act, 1911, and by the National Insurance (Joint Committee) Regulations, 1912, hereby make the following Regulations to come into operation forthwith :—

General.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Collection of Contributions, Navy and Marine) Regulations (Scotland), 1913.

2.—(1) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires :—

The expression “the Act” means the National Insurance Act, 1911 :

The expression “the Joint Committee” means the Joint Committee of the several bodies of Commissioners appointed for the purposes of Part I. of the Act :

The expression “the Commissioners” means in relation to a seaman or marine who by virtue of sub-section (4) (iii.) of Section 46 of the Act is deemed to reside in Scotland, the Scottish Insurance Commissioners, in relation to a seaman or marine who is so deemed to reside in England the Insurance Commissioners, in relation to a seaman or marine who is so deemed to reside in Ireland the Irish Insurance Commissioners, and in relation to a seaman or marine who is so deemed to reside in Wales the Welsh Insurance Commissioners :

The expression "Society" means any Approved Society and includes a branch of an Approved Society :

The expression "stamp" means a stamp issued under and for the purposes of Part I. of the Act :

"Quarter" means a period of three calendar months ending on the last day of March, June, September, and December, and includes the period from the 15th of July to the 30th of September, 1912.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. An account shall be kept by the Admiralty showing—

(a) the amounts deducted from the pay of every seaman and marine from whose pay deductions are made under Section 46 of the Act ; and

(b) the contributions made or to be made by the Admiralty in respect of every such seaman and marine under that section.

Account of deductions and contributions payable.

4. The sums so deducted and the contributions so made shall be paid by the Admiralty to the Commissioners monthly or at such other intervals as may be agreed between the Admiralty and the Commissioners.

Payments by the Admiralty.

5. The Admiralty shall keep such schedules of deductions, contributions, and arrears in respect of seamen and marines, and shall render to the Commissioners such returns and in such form as may be agreed between the Admiralty and the Joint Committee.

Returns by the Admiralty.

Payment of Arrears.

6.—(1) Any seaman or marine desirous of paying any arrears of contributions which he is entitled to pay may apply to the Society of which he is a member or, if he is a member of the Navy and Army Insurance Fund to the Commissioners, for an arrears card, and the Society or Commissioners shall inscribe thereon such particulars as may from time to time be required by the Commissioners, and shall on any such application issue accordingly a card so inscribed.

Provisions as to arrears cards and payment of arrears.

(2) The seaman or marine may affix to the arrears card so issued stamps in payment of any weekly contributions payable by him which are in arrear.

(3) Every seaman or marine affixing a stamp to an arrears card shall forthwith cancel it by writing the date in ink across the face of the stamp.

(4) Every seaman or marine who has affixed any stamp to an arrears card shall surrender the arrears card to the Society of which he is a member, or in the case of a member of the Navy and Army Insurance Fund to the Commissioners, not later than the time prescribed for the surrender of the contribution card current at the time when the stamp is affixed.

(5) Arrears shall be deemed to have been paid at the time of the surrender of the arrears card bearing the appropriate stamps to the Society, or to the Commissioners, as the case may be.

Miscellaneous.

Issue of certificate on discharge.

7. There shall be issued to every seaman and marine on discharge, or on transfer to the reserve, by such person and in such form as may be agreed between the Admiralty and the Joint Committee, a certificate showing the date of his entry into insurance or of his joining the service, whichever is the later, the number of contributions paid, the number of contributions in arrear, and the number of contributions not payable owing to sickness or disablement since joining the service or entry into insurance, whichever is the later.

Savings for seamen and marines out of the United Kingdom.

8. Where any seaman or marine is unable on account of absence from the United Kingdom to perform any act required by these Regulations to be done either forthwith or on the happening of a certain event or within a specified time he shall be deemed to have complied with these Regulations if he performs the act as soon as is reasonably possible after the happening of the event or the expiration of the specified time.

These Regulations were made by the aforesaid Joint Committee this 18th day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.
